

SMERUD
MEDICAL RESEARCH

Market Access Manager

The position

SMERUD is looking for a highly motivated and self-going professional with experience from reimbursement applications / managed access applications and negotiations in Denmark, Sweden and/or Norway. In the position as Market Access Manager you will be responsible for your own client and product portfolio across the Scandinavian countries.

Responsibilities

- Local input to / adaptations of health economic models
- Reimbursement application dossier writing and submission
- Reimbursement negotiations with applicable parties in the Scandinavian countries, primarily for orphan products

Qualification

- Academic degree in health economy or pharmacy
- Experience from reimbursement applications / managed access applications and negotiations in Denmark, Sweden and/or Norway.
- Strong fluency in English and at least one of the Scandinavian languages

Location

- Copenhagen (Denmark), Uppsala (Sweden) or Oslo (Norway)

Our offer

- Wide variety across several therapeutic areas
- Clients are mainly small biotech start-ups
- Exceptional learning potential and professional development
- Environment of leading strategic, operational and scientific expertise
- International projects, local support
- Interactive and flexible corporate working life, with short lines of command
- Competitive and attractive salary

The company

The Smerud Medical Research Group (SMERUD) is a full-service clinical Contract Research Organisation (CRO) operating in the Northern European area with head office in Norway and subsidiary offices in Denmark, Finland, Sweden, United Kingdom, Germany, Austria and Poland. Our core services are related to clinical trial activities, primarily clinical project management, monitoring, pharmacovigilance, regulatory affairs, data management, biostatistics, medical writing in addition to our general drug and device development consulting. However, we have lately extended our services to cover also market access and post-marketing activities. SMERUD has been operating for 28+ years, and been involved in more than 1500 projects in a wide variety of indications, countries and study phases. We have about 30 clinical development professionals employed, with an additional 20 freelancers and consultants associated.

Contact

For further information about the position and the company, please visit: www.smerud.com, or contact our Director of Regulatory Affairs & QA, Hilde Kloster Smerud at +47 9011 6812 / hilde.kloster.smerud@smerud.com

Application

Please submit your written application with a full CV in English to human.resources@smerud.com or to Smerud Medical Research International AS, Thunes vei 2, N-0274 Oslo, Norway, marked 'Market Access Manager'.

Deadline: 30 November 2021